Catholic Social Teaching Corner

24th Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Gospel this Sunday seems to contradict everything Catholic teaching offers about just wages and fairness. However the point of the Gospel is not just wages, it is God's generosity toward all of us, even those of us who get serious about accepting the invitation to "working in the vineyard" later in our lives. God's generosity is an inspiration for us to practice both justice and charity. Justice means that we give to every person what is due to them as a child of God. Charity goes beyond justice by loving others and giving beyond what justice requires because of that love. We are loved much and therefore should love greatly in turn. Who needs love this week from me?

24ro. Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

El Evangelio de este domingo parece contradecir todo lo que la enseñanza Católica ofrece sobre salarios justos y equidad. De cualquier modo, el punto del Evangelio no es sólo los salarios, es la generosidad de Dios hacia nosotros, incluso hacia aquellos de nosotros que aceptamos la invitación de "trabajar en el viñedo" tarde en nuestras vidas. La generosidad de Dios es una inspiración para nosotros para practicar ambas, la justicia y la caridad. La justicia significa que demos a cada persona lo que les corresponde como hijos de Dios. La caridad va más allá de la justicia al amar a los otros y dar más allá de lo que la justicia demanda por amor. Somos muy amados y por lo tanto debemos amar mucho en reciprocidad. ¿Quién necesita amor de mi esta semana?

Gospel Mediation

The scale of God's generosity and mercy is impossible for us to comprehend accurately. Have we reflected on all that God has done for us? How great is God's mercy? Are we content with our blessings or do we strive for more? How generously do we use our goods in service of others? God calls us to strive to be the servant of all.

Mediación Evangélica

La escala de la generosidad y la misericordia de Dios es imposible para nosotros entender con precisión. ¿Hemos reflexionado sobre todo lo que Dios ha hecho por nosotros? ¿Qué tan grande es su misericordia? ¿Estamos contentos con nuestras bendiciones o nos esforzamos por más? ¿Qué tan generosamente usamos nuestros bienes para el servicio de otros? Dios nos invita a esforzarnos por ser el servidor de todos.

Father Rother,
 First American Martyr –
 First American Man Beatified

Yesterday, September 23, Oklahoma-born Father Stanley Rother became the first American man to be beatified! In December, Pope Francis recognized him as the first America-born martyr as well. Now Blessed Father Rother is only one step away from becoming a saint.

In 1968, after being a priest in the Archdiocese of Oklahoma City, he went on a mission trip to Guatemala. There, he fell in love with the landscape, culture and people, so he was transferred. He developed a farmers' co-op, a school, a hospital clinic and the first Catholic radio station in the area. Additionally, he helped in developing a written language for the Mayan parishioners, so they could have the written Word of God.

Unfortunately, in 1981, Guatemala's civil war reached his parish. He received death threats, told to leave the country and was put on a "hit list." He chose to stay with his people, saying, "The shepherd cannot run at the first sign of danger." On July 28, 1981, three people broke into the rectory and murdered Father Stanley Rother.
