YEAR OF THE DOMESTIC CHURCH

December Theme: Hail Mary, Full of Grace

It is fitting to end this Year of the Domestic Church on the Feast of the Holy Family. The Feast of the Holy Family celebrates the human family unit, as well as the ultimate family unit: Jesus, Mary, and Joseph. This Feast is not just about the Holy Family, but about our own families too.

The main purpose of this day is to present the Holy Family as the model for all Christian families, and for domestic life in general. Our family life becomes sanctified when we live the life of the Church within our homes. As we’ve learned this year, we call this the "domestic church" or the "church in miniature." St. John Chrysostom urged all Christians to make each home a "family church," and in doing so, this sanctifies the family unit.

Just how does one live out the Church in the family? The best way is by making Christ the center of family and individual life. Ways to do this include reading scripture regularly, praying daily, attending Mass at least on Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation, imitating the actions of the Holy Family, and going to confession frequently, all done together as a family unit.

SENIOR CITIZEN SOCIALS BEGIN AGAIN IN JANUARY!

We meet on the first and third Thursdays of the month from 1:00 to 5:00 p.m. at St. John’s Parish Hall. Our first social will be Thursday, January 6! Come for an afternoon of games, fellowship and refreshments. New faces are always welcome!

MOBILE FOOD PANTRY: The next Drive –Thru distribution is January 6, from 10:00 – 11:00 a.m. Clients are to stay in their vehicles and open the trunk. Volunteers will load the food for you.

TIME IS RUNNING OUT: Online EIM Training ends on

January 2! Everyone who is due to renew EIM compliance, or whose compliance is coming due soon, is strongly encouraged to update your compliance now online – otherwise, after January 2, you will have to attend an in-person EIM Workshop in order to update your training status. To complete the online training, go to www.austindiocese.org/workshop.

YEAR END CHARITABLE GIFT GIVING: You may soon begin thinking of the charitable gifts you want to make before year’s end. Consider these questions as you plan: What assets would you like to dispose of? Can any be used to fund a charitable trust, such as a charitable remainder trust? What organizations are on your gift-giving list? Did you remember the Austin Diocese, your parish, or Catholic school, or the Catholic Foundation – Diocese of Austin? Contact Dan Wierzbowski, associate director of Planned Giving, to make the most of your year-end giving and support the Catholic Church for future generations. You can reach him at (512) 949-2496 or dan-wierzbowski@austindiocese.org.

ARE YOU BEING CALLED TO SERVE? Men between 30 and 59 sensing God’s call to the permanent diaconate are invited to attend, with their wives, the next Inquiry Session on Sunday, January 9, at St. Elizabeth of Hungary in Pflugerville.

Dec. 26 Feast of the Holy Family

Each of us was made by God, created in God's image and called to an authentic and holy life in Christ through the grace of the Holy Spirit. In keeping true to our commitment to raising children in the faith, we must continue to transmit the full truth concerning the human person at every stage from conception to natural death. May we focus not only on the gifts of family life, but also the family as the basis of a peaceful and just society.

Diciembre 26 Celebración de la Sagrada Familia

Cada uno de nosotros fue hecho por Dios, creado a imagen y semejanza de Dios y llamado a una vida auténtica y santa en Cristo a través de la gracia del Espíritu Santo. Al mantenernos fieles a nuestro compromiso de criar a nuestros hijos en la fe, debemos continuar transmitiendo la verdad completa sobre la persona humana en cada etapa, desde la concepción hasta la muerte natural. Enfoquémonos no solamente en los dones de la vida familiar sino también en la familia como la base de una sociedad pacífica y justa.

A Note from the Pastor

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

God could have come among us in any way he chose, but his great love for us led him to be born within a family in humble circumstances. This can give great hope to us in our trying times. Our celebration of Christmas reminds us that even though this world can still be oppressed by the darkness of war, poverty and injustice, the peace of God's Kingdom is really here. The light of the Messiah shines through our words and acts of compassion, love, and faithfulness. We could not know God as God until God revealed Himself to us by sending His Son. Jesus Christ came to all who would believe in him. He is the exact representation of his Father's being, hidden from us through the ages. Today we celebrate the comfort and salvation coming from God to us and people everywhere.

In Luke's account of the birth of Jesus, the good news is first proclaimed to lowly shepherds, visited by an angel of the Lord. It is the nature of this child, Jesus Christ, who was born in history, to reverse the orders of power. The one who is the mighty warrior and conqueror of the nations is a child, one who rules with peace and integrity. It is the child as the weak and voiceless one, the one who has neither power nor legal rights, who will shake the empire. It is through the gift of this child who is given to us in the middle of the night that we have hope, and we continue to pass this hope from generation to generation. May God always find us waiting and longing for his return, and may you have a very blessed Christmas season and a peace-filled new year.

-Fr. Steve
